Writing: Submissions for writing are not being accepted at this time.
Should that change, it will be posted on the website.

Artist Guidelines:

Use the published greeting cards we show on our website as a guide for submitting your artwork. Art should be of the caliber shown and fit into our greater theme of nature and outdoors.
Only artwork is acceptable. Do not send greeting card designs.

Art needs to be of a professional level and present a realistic and/or naturalistic approach to the subject matter. Color and background settings need to be fully realized. We typically search for images that include North American wildlife, waterfowl, songbirds, outdoor/wilderness activities (fishing, camping, hiking), scenic/landscapes, and domestic animals (pets and farm).

Art may be submitted in any form except original art. Digital images on a CD are preferred. If submitting materials you want returned, you must include a SASE with appropriate postage. If submitting via email, send no more than five (5) lo-res jpg files of images that best represent your greater body of work. Include your full name and contact info and reference your web site if you have one.

ALL submissions must include your name, address, and phone number. We will only contact you should we be interested in using one of your images. Art selection takes place over the course of many months. Images are typically selected for both our Christmas and Everyday line in the first half of the year.

We do not offer critiques of portfolios nor can we put you in touch with other card companies.

Should we have need for a specific subject matter, it will be posted on the website.
